++ Valid for broadcast between 1800 and 0600

Headline:
Scattered to frequent showers, often heavy. Windy with coastal gales.

This Evening and Tonight:
Frequent evening showers becoming heavier and more widespread overnight. By morning the worst will have cleared to the south and east, thought scattered showers, some heavy, will remain into tomorrow. Windy, with costal gales likely and local squalls possible. Cold. Minimum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Saturday:
Scattered showers to start, growing more frequent and blustery. Chances of thunder, lightning and hail. Wintry over moors. Easing towards the end of the day. Windy with costal gales possible. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Outlook for Sunday to Tuesday:
A dry start for most on Sunday, with outbreaks of rain later. Monday and Tuesday largely dry, though the east likely to see patchy rain late on Tuesday.
